The Year Of The Warriors

Football has been called brutal, violent, exciting and beautiful. This sport of men against men is a valid test of the character of each man and each team, and in the "Year of the Warrior" the Kingsmen proved to have a mighty stature.

The Kingsmen, plagued by injuries as never before, refused to lay down and die—in fact they refused to even droop their heads. Primed by a pre-season victory (26-0) over the always tough alumni the Kingsmen rolled over U. of Nevada, Las Vegas (28-0). In the four following weeks they smashed Redlands (13-0), Whittier (10-0), La-Verne (23-6), and Simon Frazier (25-0). The sixth game was the 14th victory in a row, longest streak ever for CLC, over Occidental (60-13). Following a dark day on a wet field and a loss to a tough Cal Western team, the Kingsmen rebounded to a fine (37-22) homecoming victory over Pomona. The Kingsmen then ended the season on another victory over Concordia (20-14) of Seward, Nebraska.

At one time this Kingsmen team was rated nationally 15th, and at the end of the season, the defense was the nation's 4th best against the rush and 8th over all. "The Year of the Warriors" was the second straight NAIA District III championship for CLC. Carl Clark and Richard Kelly received all district NAIA first team honors and 13 others filled out the rest of the all district teams. It was a fine year of determination, poise and pride for the Kingsmen, truly a "Year of the Warriors."

Kingsmen Conquer NAIA District III

The "Year of the Warriors" was a year of the "Turk" throwing to Nasty, who followed the block of the Baron. It was the Bauer blast and a man named Jones. It was the "Groveller" on the coaching staff and Jaw Bone on the tackle. It was Carl Clark and Richard Kelly on the first team for District III. It was 8-1 and 5 knee surgeries. It was playing while injured and watching while not. It was the mad duck from Fresno and six rolls of tape. It was cigars from Joe Stouch and hands by Jeter. It was long hair in the helmets and helmets that didn't fit. It was Shad saving the team and the cry of Grenade. It was getting nifty with Tyner and getting tough with Vince. It was happiness and sadness. It was life itself.

Freshmen Complete Undefeated Season

The Knaves extended their win streak to 13 in a row as head coach George Engdahl's team went undefeated for its second consecutive year. The beginning looked dim with only 18 players, but through excellent coaching by Assistants Bob Bonner, Bob Cantor, Bruce Nelson, and Jeff McKay the team pulled together. Making up for a lack of size and numbers the spunky Knaves crushed Whittier, Redlands and Cal State Long Beach in their 3 official encounters. Line backer Brian Kelly received "Most Valuable Player" and Team Captain and split end Mike Spengler received the "Most Improved Award" as the players prepare to move on to Varsity competition.

Homecoming was one of the most unique times of the year for the CLC campus. Mental invention went to work long before the festivities of the weekend began. The evidence of paint, paper, chicken wire and anything else you can think of stirs the imagination of the many who visited our campus during this time. The feeling of infiltration by alumni and parents dominated the cafeteria and the additional parking areas. The campus was transformed into a display of a yearly theme adopted by the Homecoming Committee and was carried through almost everywhere you looked. Festivities ranging from cart races to halftime entertainment lightened the mood for the traditional dance on Saturday night. Mood music was provided by the CLC band at the daytime activities with Jimmy Henderson's World Renowned Band taking the limelight Saturday night. The all school communion service on Sunday was highlighted by the addition of the alumni choir who were still far from stale. The convocation message, "Rebel for rebel's sake, or for a cause" was given by Dr. Gornitzka. The theme for the weekend festivities was "Living Legend."

From the start of the year, signs made up most of the decor around C.L.C. Some signs were humorous, while others conveyed more serious topics. All in all, these were;

Wrestling

John Owens posted a winning record in his first year as coach of the Cal Lutheran wrestling team. The Kingsmen overcame inexperience and injuries to finish the season at 8-7-1 and place Second at the NAIA District Tournament.

Captain Chuck LaGamma climaxed a brilliant career at the NAIA National Tournament in Superior, Wisconsin. The Two-time District Champion won his first match at the Nationals before losing in the round. Freshman Brian Kelley, District III heavyweight champion also made the trip to the Nationals.

Baseball

The temperature ran hot and cold for Coach Engdahl's Nine. The Nine won victories over such strong opponents as Cal State L.A., Cal Western, La Verne, and the University of Washington, and won five in a row. In the last stretch, however, they didn't fare as well, suffering five consecutive losses to U.C.L.A., and nationally-ranked La Verne, Chapman, U.C. Irvine, and Cal State L.A. The season read 16-26.

Sophomores Jeff Brack and Tom Petelin provided the key for the Kingsmen's successes, finishing with identical 7-8 win-loss records. Jeff, who was voted Most Valuable Player by his teammates, struck out 105 men in 121 innings en route to a 2.81 earned run average. Tom, served a no-hitter against Cal Western in his first start and closed with a respectable 2.93 ERA.

Kingsman, Bob Biven batted over .300. This sophomore leftfielder led the team with four home runs, 25 runs batted in, and a .345 average.

Captain Craig Dombey at .291 and freshman Mike Sheppard at .286, who earned the Most Improved Player Award followed Biven with .249.

Ron Golden, second baseman, received the "Hustler" award. Biven and Dombey were named Co-Captains for 1971.

Most Valuable Player—Captain Jeff Brock

Track. . .

Coach Curt Nelson's last track meet was a good one as his men set five new school records in the NAIA District III Championships.

Nelson, who is retiring after five years, watched his team finish 7th out of 14 at Cal Western this year. In dual competition, the Kingsmen finished with a 3-9 mark.

Captain Bob Wilkins received the 1st annual Gary Rife Memorial Award in honor of the 1968 CLC graduate. Gary Branham was named Captain for 1971.

Yam Yad Sproingggg

Dateline . . . 7 May

Sproingggg City Seventy—CLC held its 4th annual Yam Yad in this city. The day came, not as its usual surprise due to an open conflict with Yam Yad, the invasion of Cambodia and lastly, the tragic murders at Kent State.

But the day arrived in full force and those who chose to participate did so with the true YY spirit. Breakfast included milk, rolls, and water fights at the equestrian corral and a long caravan through T.O. to this city filled the morning activities. After beef sandwiches, the ex-movie set was overrun with wildly dressed men, injured and cut coeds, and soaking students who had unintentionally been dunked in the city's big lake.

In addition, there were imported animals, a cow and a goat for a milking contest and even a baby elephant!

Steak dinners, cartoons, (Betty Boop), Hedge and Donna, rollerskating, fireworks, and a bonfire kept everyone busy during the rest of the evening. And when all had gone, it could be said that this year's Yam Yad Sproingggg combined the outstanding features of all the previous three and was the best of them yet!!
